

Under what circumstances can we purchase a car for a student?

None, we do not make exceptions to this policy. Budget constraints as well as other factors prevent us from setting a precedent or expanding this supportive service to EF participants in other component activities. We reserve this supportive service for only those EF participants who have secured full-time permanent employment that will lead their families towards economic independence and have a demonstrated need for personal transportation to get to and from their job.

08/28/02